EOYs for each company. This process worked well this year and will be retained going forward. I want to express my sincere thanks to Darrell Sargeant (last year's awardee) and the team for their work in this."

Wellington Greene, BBC's Employee Of The Year and the eventual winner, copped the prize which was keenly contested by the other Employees Of The Year: Ralph Flatts, delivery driver of B&B Distribution; Justin Corbin, brewing technician at Banks (Barbados) Breweries Ltd; Nadia Haynes, management accounting assistant at the BHL Corporate Division; and Cleaton Parris, the stores/warehouse clerk at Pinehill Dairy.

the Lloyd Erskine Sandiford Centre function. The CEO's Trophy — a Krystof Crystal Boston Footed Bowl; an all expenses paid seven-night cruise for two on the Carnival Liberty, which will take Wellington and his guest to Miami, Florida, Cozumel, Mexico; Belize; Mahogany Bay Isla Roatan, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands and back to Miami, Florida; return tickets for two to Miami; US$500 spending money and one extra week of paid vacation.

The CEO's awardee and each of the other EOYs won an all-inclusive weekend for two at The Turtle Beach Hotel; $1 000 in cash; a Waterford Crystal Clock and a certificate of recognition. In addition, all BHL companies also select Employees of the Month and these winners were awarded $500 in cash and a certificate of recognition.

Wellington's exceptional service began when he joined the company in 2000 as a temporary worker. In 2002, he was appointed as a general worker. He worked his way up to his current post as forklift operator, which he has served in since 2008 and has been repeatedly nominated for EOM, winning the title on six occasions, including twice in 2005.

During the awards, BBC's Production Manager Lorenzo Roach shared a memorable story, which demonstrated Wellington's dedication. He had been socialising the night before and even though he had not slept, when he was approached at his home to come over to BBC to urgently assist — since an employee had called in sick — he replied, no problem.

Wellington is currently working with Pinehill Dairy, a sister BHL subsidiary, since his consistent level of participation and proactive nature make him a man in demand within the BHL Group.

It was yet another year of tough decision-making for BHL CEO, as each candidate was considered worthy of receiving the ultimate award. "Once again the candidates presented by the various companies this year were all exemplary and any of them would be a suitable and worthy winner. Every year I comment on the quality of candidates and every year the process of picking a winner from among winners gets tougher."

THE BHL CEO's Awards function at Lloyd Erskine Sandiford Centre was attended by over 500 staff members. (GP)
